Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Day 1 Cairngorms National Park

Travel through the inspirational landscapes of the Cairngorms National Park Sample your first delicious whisky of the tour You head north through the Kingdom of Fife to Lindores Abbey Distillery. This modern Scottish distillery is built on the site of the first ever recorded distiller in the country. After lunch in Pitlochry, you can sample the delights of Scotland's highest distillery at Dalwhinnie, near the source of the River Spey. Once you've warmed with this dram of "the gentle spirit", you continue through the Cairngorms National Park before reaching Grantown on Spey, your base for two nights.

Day 02: Day 2 Speyside Cooperage

Understand the craftsmanship of the whisky cask at the Speyside Cooperage A whole day exploring Scotland's most famous whisky region. After a scenic drive towards the coast, your first stop of the day is at the family-owned Benromach Distillery, where you can go on a personalised tour. You travel back up the Spey River to Craigellachie for a visit to the Speyside Cooperage*, where you see another aspect of the whisky making process. After lunch here or in nearby Aberlour, you visit Glenfiddich Distillery, home to the world's most popular single malt. Tradition and passion have shaped the distinctive flavours of this Speyside favourite since the Grant family first started distilling in this area more than 130 years ago. From here, you travel back to Grantown on Spey. *Speyside Cooperage is only visited on Monday and Wednesday departures.

Day 03: Day 3 Royal Deeside Region

Admire the peaks of the famous Cairngorms National Park Walk in the footsteps of the Royal Family in the beautiful Royal Deeside region. In the morning you visit Glenlivet, which is both a distillery and a beautiful glen with serene walks and wonderful wildlife. You then enjoy the majesty of Royal Deeside. You pass by Balmoral Castle, and stop in the village of Braemar in the heart of the National Park. From here the route south passes over Scotland's highest mountain pass, through Perthshire, and back to Edinburgh. Itinerary and distillery visits are subject to change.
