

Isle Of Skye And West Highlands

Note: Price printed on this PDF is valid until 02-05-2025 and is subject to change without notice due to Partner changes and currency fluctuations

Visit: Glenfinnan and the 'Harry Potter' viaduct-The White Sands of Morar- Five Sisters of Kintail-Isle of Skye- The Cuillin Hills- Highland Perthshire- Glencoe

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Day 1 Edinburgh

Gaze in wonder at the 'weeping glen', Glencoe Take in the majestic views of barren Rannoch Moor You leave Edinburgh and travel north west. On this route, you see one of Scotland's most amazing modern marvels, The Kelpies. These massive steel horse heads are fantastic to photograph and intriguingly engineered. Your guide will keep you entertained and let you have the chance to see an ancient Scottish castle. For lunch, you refuel with some local food in either of the small towns of Killin or Callander. After ambling along and enjoying beautiful views of rivers, lochs, and forests, you cross the wild and remote Rannoch Moor. This is a favourite location for photographers and nature lovers, so make sure you've charged your camera. You then head to the majestic and historic Glencoe. Here, you can learn about one of the most tragic tales in Scottish history. We then drive along the shore of Loch Linnhe before reaching our base for the night in Fort William.

Day 02: Day 2 'Harry Potter' rail bridge - the Glenfinnan Viaduct - 'Misty Isle'- Skye

Adore the beautiful 'Harry Potter' rail bridge, the Glenfinnan Viaduct Arrive in the 'Misty Isle', Skye You go on a breath-taking drive from Fort William and pass the famous Glenfinnan Viaduct. This is one of the most beautiful railway bends in Britain and featured in the Harry Potter movies. There's also an iconic monument that commemorates the Jacobites who fought for Scottish independence. After arriving in Mallaig, you take the ferry 'over the sea to Skye' to the southern area of the island.* You travel through the Sleat Peninsula before spending time in Glenbrittle, where you can admire its famed waterfalls. You may also enjoy the incredible seascapes and views of the Cuillin Mountains in Elgol, and visit the bay of Talisker. After all these sublime sights, you head to your overnight base in the Lochalsh and Skye area. * During the winter months (October till the end of March) you take a scenic route through Kyle of Lochalsh and drive over the Skye Bridge. Tours departing from 29th October stay overnight in Portree

Day 03: Day 3 The Quiraing- The Old Man of Storr- Neist Point

Today is your opportunity to see some of the most famous wonders of Skye. The Quiraing, the Old Man of Storr, Neist Point: the options are endless. Your guide will choose a unique itinerary to suit the weather and what's happening on the island. And they'll always ensure you get a chance to get off the beaten track and discover the best spots for photos. In the late afternoon, you return to your overnight base

Day 04: Day 4 Ben Nevis-Dunkeld Cathedral

Try and catch a glimpse of Britain's highest mountain, Ben Nevis Admire the oddly unique architecture of Dunkeld Cathedral You travel south through Glen Shiel and past magnificent Loch Cluanie, as we head east for a view of Britain's highest mountain, Ben Nevis. Continuing south, your route passes through the Monadhliath Mountains and into the Central Highlands, where you stop in the historic village of Dunkeld. Here you have the chance to visit the ruins of the old cathedral. Travelling south, you head through the Lowlands, over the Queens ferry Crossing, and into Edinburgh.

Inclusion

Transport in a 16 seat Mercedes mini-coach
Air conditioning as standard
The stories and services of an English-speaking driver-guide

Exclusion

Entry fees to visitor attractions
Optional activities
Other meals, drinks, tips and other personal expenses or services not specified on the program
Personal equipment
Travel insurance
Gratuities
Voluntary tips for guides or drivers
Travel and medical insurance
Any items not mentioned as inclusions

Note

Tour departs from Edinburgh
All rates are inclusive of Breakfast unless stated otherwise.
All Tours are operated on mini and midi-coaches and with very experienced driver-guides.
Accommodation upgrade to 3 star property is available on request.
Child supplement is available on request.
Please note that the child supplement applies only to up to 01 child aged 5-15 years old, sharing the same room with 02 adults. No children under 5 years old are permitted, except with special permission.
Important information - Pack your waterproof clothing and walking shoes

Tour Dates & Pricing