

Lewis, Harris & The Outer Hebrides

Note: Price printed on this PDF is valid until 02-05-2025 and is subject to change without notice due to Partner changes and currency fluctuations

Visit: Lewis and Harris- Callanish standing stones- White sands of Luskentyre- Arnol Blackhouse

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Day 1 Inverness - Ullapool - Stornoway

Venture past the Summer Isles on a scenic ferry Discover what day-in-the-life of a Highlander is like at the Arnol Blackhouse You don't waste time on this tour. You get up early, travel straight from Inverness to Ullapool and catch your ferry to the islands. This stunning sea-trip takes you along Loch Broom, past the Summer Isles, and out to Stornoway; capital of the Outer Hebrides. But don't let the waves rock you to sleep; because if you keep a look out you might spot a dolphin or a whale. Once you've arrived on Lewis, your first stop is the ancient past. You travel to the North West of the island and get the chance to visit the 'blackhouse' at Arnol. Dive into this traditional abode and discover how the Highland crofting families lived their day-to-day lives. After this, you go through more crofting communities and venture to the northernmost tip of the island, the Butt of Lewis. The lighthouse here boasts epic views of waves crashing against sea cliffs. It's now time to head back to Stornoway for your overnight.

Day 02: Day 2 Harris - Port of Leverburgh - Luskentyre beach - Stornoway

Listen to the waves on the famous white sands of Luskentyre Beach Marvel at the mountains of Harris Today, you're heading south to Harris. The first thing you notice about Harris are the mountains. And as you weave through the towering marvels, your guide will tell you about the traditions and tales of this part of Scotland. There's not many towns around here; but after you've had your fill of unspoilt beaches and landscapes, you stop in the small port of Leverburgh for lunch. Now it's time for one of the great Hebridean highlights, Luskentyre beach. On a good day, the sea turns turquoise and the sands look pristine white. After you've enjoyed all these natural wonders, it's time to head back to Stornoway. Maybe it's time to try the famous black pudding for dinner.

Day 03: Day 3 Uig - Great Bernera - Callanish standing stones - Stornoway - Inverness

Study the stories behind the Callanish standing stones Discover the site where they found the famous Lewis Chessmen Today, you're delving back to the ancient past. You venture to the far west of Lewis to the parish of Uig, an area of outstanding natural beauty. More than 800 years ago, the Vikings lived here and left behind an icon of Scotland, the Lewis Chessmen. Next, we visit another island community on Great Bernera, an island that remained isolated until the 1950's. There's Viking influence everywhere here, and they also say the real James Bond lived here. But we'll let your driver-guide tell you more about that. And now what you've been waiting for, the Callanish standing stones. These 5,000-year-old megaliths are said to be petrified giants who wouldn't convert to Christianity. You may not believe this myth, but that doesn't mean this sight isn't magnificent. We have a lunch in Stornoway before crossing back to the mainland returning to Inverness in the evening.

Inclusion

Transportation by a 16 seat Mercedes mini-coach Air conditioning as standard The stories and services of an English-speaking driver-guide All rates are inclusive of Breakfast unless stated otherwise.

Exclusion

Entry fees to visitor attractions Anything not mentioned in inclusions

Note

All Tours departing from Inverness Departs - 08.00 - Stance 7, Inverness Bus Station, Margaret St, Inverness, IV1 1LT Returns - 19:00 All Tours are operated on 16 seater mini-coaches and with very experienced driver-guides. Please note that the child supplement applies only to up to 01 child aged 5-15 years old, sharing the same room with 02 adults. No children under 5 years old are permitted. Luggage - You're restricted to 14kg (31lbs) of luggage per person on our tours plus a small bag for onboard personal items. Important information - Pack your waterproof clothing and walking shoes

Tour Dates & Pricing

