Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: DAY 1: Tunis Area = 15 Km

- Meet & Greet Tunis airport and transfer to your hotel in Tunis or Gammarth. • Dinner and accommodation.

Day 02: DAY 2: Tunis / Carthage / Sidi Bou Said / Bardo museum =35 Km

- After breakfast, you will explore Tunis Medina World Heritage Site with its narrow streets, the Bardo Museum with its spectacular collection of Roman mosaics, then Carthage which is an extensive archaeological site. Located on a hill dominating the Gulf of Tunis and the surrounding plain; Carthage has exercised considerable influence on the development of the arts, architecture and town planning in the Mediterranean. • You will also see the tophets, the Punic ports, Antonine Baths, Byrsa Hill, the cisterns, the Carthage Museum. • You finish by a visit to the delightful hillside town of Sidi Bou Said with its superb views over the Bay of Tunis. • Then back to your hotel in Tunis or Gammarth, dinner and overnight.

OPTIONAL: • At 20H00: transfer t for a Tunisian dinner in restaurant DAR EL JELD in the Medina of Tunis, this restaurant is "special" and you know it from the moment you see the "grand bee-yellow" door, which leads to an "elaborate 18th century mansion". The decor is a bit like a "lavishly decorated jewelry box" and the dining room is "magnificent". The "alcove" tables are arranged around a "secluded" courtyard. The Tunisian dishes are "delicious" and the "twanging tones" of and "elderly" musician accompany your meal.

Day 03: DAY 3: Tunis Zaghouan and day in the farm =56 Km

• After breakfast departure to Zaghouan:(ancient Ziqua), whose mountain springs were an important water source for Roman Carthage • Visit of the Water Temple - a Roman aqueduct once carrying water from Carthage to the sources of the region Zaghouan. • Installation at Dar Zaghouan for diner and overnight stay: several rooms stand in the middle of a field of almond trees. At the entrance to the farm, we find a large flower garden, not far away, two cottages with suites of different styles: the Berber, Bey, the Roman and the Andalusian coexist in a comfortable luxury atmosphere, with furniture and decor of great originality. For dining, organic products are in the spotlight. Proceeds from the collection is used to prepare food fresh, healthy, tasteful, which also reflect the culinary lifestyle of the different civilizations that the region could know.

Day 04: DAY 4: On the footsteps of Berbers / Djbel Zaghouan =45km

• After breakfast, the walk begins with a visit to 'Djebel Zaghouan' (Zaghouan mountain): ideal for practicing mountain activities such as climbing, mountain biking. • Then visit Takrouna: a village set atop a rocky outcrop on the plains southwest of Hammamet, has always been a prized defensive position. Views from the village over the surrounding area are spectacular. • Return to Dar Zaghouan for dinner and overnight stay.

Day 05: DAY 5: Zaghouan / Thuburbo Majus /Dougga/ the holly city of Kairouan = 125 Km

• After breakfast, you head to the smaller yet still interesting site of Thuburbo Majus- one of the best-preserved sites in Tunisia. It was occupied by the Berbers, Phoenicians, and (in 27 B.C.) the Romans, afterwards converted into one of many Roman garrisons in North Africa • Proceed to visit the UNESCO archaeological site Dougga (ancient Thugga): covering some 60 acres and laid out on a steep slope some 2,000 feet above the plain, Dougga was known as the "city of temples. • Visit of Dougga's theatre, which today is used for its Drama festival and accommodates almost 3,500 people. • Then travel to the holy city of Kairouan for dinner and your overnight stay at the 5* Kasbah Hotel.

Day 06: DAY 6: Kairouan / Sbeitla / Tozeur = 315 Km

• After breakfast, you start the day with a visit to the historic monuments in this ancient city, including the Great Mosque, the Mausoleum of Sidi Sahbi, the Aghlabide pools and the Medina. • Continue to Sbeitla: It was site of the first major battle between the Muslim armies from the south-east and those of the Byzantines who made the city their headquarters. Since then, the city seems to have led a peaceful life that encouraged its growth and prosperity • Travel south to Tozeur, dinner and accommodation.
