Visit: Guided panoramic tour of Paris with entry into Notre Dame - Cruise on the River Seine - world famous Eiffel Tower

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Day Tour to Magical Paris -Eiffel Tower - River Seine

On arrival at Paris Gare du Nord, you and your guide will board your luxury private coach and start your Parisian journey pointing out sites as you travel through the heart of Paris on your way to the Eiffel Tower. Your first stop is the Eiffel Tower, where you'll have time to get up close and take plenty of photos. Board your sightseeing cruise along the River Seine. You will meander through the heart of Paris taking in stunning panoramic views from the all glass boat with an open air observation deck while listening to the fascinating audio commentary. Disembark your cruise when you will then have free time to explore the area, may have some lunch (ask your host for recommendations). Re-board your private coach for a panoramic sightseeing tour of Paris where you will take in the major landmarks including the Champs-Elysees, the Arc de Triomphe

and the Place de la Concorde. Stop at the Louvre for a photo opportunity at the famous glass pyramids. Drive through the Latin Quarter where you will disembark your coach and make your way to Notre Dame Cathedral widely considered as one of the finest examples of French Gothic architecture. Visit the cathedral, admiring the fantastic stained glass rose windows and flying buttresses, before some free time to enjoy Paris's cafes or a little souvenir shopping. After your free time at Notre Dame re-join the group to make your way back to the Gare Du Nord to ensure that you are on time to check in for your Eurostar train service back to London
