Day 07: DAY 7: BÚZIOS - RIO DE JANEIRO - SALVADOR

This morning, transfer back to Rio de Janeiro airport for flight to Salvador. Arrive in Salvador, transfer to hotel.Salvador, Capital of the State of Bahia, and was also Brazil's capital until 1763, is divided in two parts.

The "Lower City" is at sea level and contains the old port and the commercial area where visitors will find a complete and varied assortment of Brazilian arts and crafts at the Modelo Market. It is also the best place to witness a demonstration of "capoeira", a martial art developed by African slaves in Brazil, originally as a form of combat and later as a type of dance and folklore tradition. The "Upper City" can be reached by stone steps, alleyways or the famous Lacerda Elevator. This part of the city contains the old government buildings, the residential districts, museums, churches and much of the newer architecture. Evening, Rio Vermelho by night. Rio Vermelho, referred to by Bahians as the "bairro boêmio", or the bohemian quarter, embraces the city's bon vivants with open arms, and in many cases, open doors until the small hours. It is here that Bahians will head for on a night out. The neighborhood has a myriad of bars, restaurants and botecos, (a tapas-like bar), this latter key to the district's charm. Bahian street food is famous throughout Brazil. The famed acarajé and abará, traditionally sold through the city by "baianas de acarajé" from their colorful stalls, washed down with a cool drink is a favorite pastime for locals. Rio Vermelho is home to 3 of the city's most famous treasured baianas de acarajé. Music completes the bairro's attractions with a number of bars providing the best in local live music in its many forms, traditional and contemporary. The first stop will be to savor the acarajé and a cool drink (first drink is on us!). Then move on to a busy boteco to taste some of the local delicacies and finally pop in to catch one of the music performances. Note: Attractions can vary on the night of the week and time of the year. Food and drink consumption and music cover charge to be paid for individually. Overnight at selected hotel

Day 08: DAY 8: SALVADOR

Morning h/d Historical Tour - We start in the modern suburb of Barra and make our way slowly by to the old historical section of town, the Pelourinho area with the largest and the best preserved complex colonial architecture in the Americas.
