After breakfast start your tour of Amritsar city at the Golden Temple, also known as Harmandir Sahib. The Temple was built in 1574 and has a great spiritual meaning for Sikh believers. Close by is the Durgiana Temple which is modelled on the Golden Temple. Although it is dedicated to the Hindu goddess Durga, devotees also offer prayers to Lord Krishna and Lord Vishnu. You will also visit Jalianwala Bagh, infamous for the Jalianwala Bagh massacre that took place in 1919. On this day, British troops opened fire without warning on innocent unarmed men, women and children attending the Baisakhi festival. Explore the park that commemorates the Indians killed and wounded here. In late afternoon visit Wagah border to see flag exchange ceremony. Meal: Breakfast
