Day 02: DAY 2: HIKING TRAIL FROM KRANJSKA GORA TO MOJSTRANA VALLEY

This morning meet your hiking guide and head out to the valley of river Sava Dolinka and partially on the edges of the Karavanke mountain range. Start your hike from the village of Kranjska Gora known for alpine world cup competitions. We will continue along the left bank of Sava Dolinka river, over Srednji vrh and back to the valley of Gozd Martuljek. Here you will admire the breathtaking views of Špik mountain and the entire upper Sava valley and in the and pass the beautiful Martuljški waterfalls just below the mountain. Cross the river and continue on the right bank almost along the edge of Triglav National Park until you reach a peaceful part of Mojstrana valley, below the steep rocks of Grančič before reaching the Slovenian Alpine Museum at the entry point to Vrata Valley. Transfer to Kranjska Gora for overnight in a campsite of your choice. TRAIL DETAILS: Difficulty: moderate; Duration: 4 – 5 hours; Distance: 16.6 km

Day 03: DAY 3: HIKING TRAIL FROM KOBARID TO BOVEC

Today drive to the magnificent Soča valley carved by the emerald river with the same name. Start the hike in the town of Kobarid and make your way through the gorge along the Soča river to the town of Bovec. The trail will lead you along the river Soča, softly running across gravel pits in its lower part, foams in wild rapids and deep pools. Follow the wild stream whole day, hike through the areas that have carried the name and glory of the river among the wild water buffs. Pass the stunning Boka waterfall and continue to a wide basin to take in the views of mighty Julian peaks. At the end you will reach the heart of the valley, the town of Bovec. Transfer to Kobarid for overnight. TRAIL DETAILS: Difficulty: easy; Duration: 6 hours; Distance: 20.4 km

Day 04: DAY 4: FROM JULIAN ALPS TO THE LITTORAL REGION

Drive to Goriška Brda, the wine region of Slovenia and enjoy in the fairy tale landscape nestled halfway between the Alps and Adriatic Sea. We walk through the small villages build in traditional style and on the way pass the green hills covered with vineyards, olive groves and orchards. At the end of the tour stop in a local inn for lunch. Drive to Nova Gorica are for overnight in a campsite of your choice. TRAIL DETAILS: Difficulty: easy; Duration: 3 hours; Distance: approx. 10 km

Day 05: DAY 5: ŠKOCJAN CAVES AND KARST

Take a short drive to Škocjan caves, part of the UNESCO heritage. Where you will join a guided tour of the cave system created by the mighty Reka river. The cave hides the largest underground canyon in Europe which reaches up to 146 m high. On the path that crosses breathtaking bridges, one can observe underground waterfalls, vast halls, gigantic concretions and other karstic creations. After the tour meet your hiking guide and continue where most people finish and get to know Karst even better. Walk through the beautiful canyon of Reka river up to Vremš?ica hill for beautiful views of the region, the Adriatic region and even Julian Alps in the background.
