Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Day 1 Frankfurt

Arrival in Frankfurt and transfer to the hotel.

Day 02: Day 2 Frankfurt - Koblenz - Bonn

After breakfast, travel to the ancient Roman city of Koblenz. Visit of the city, considered one of the oldest cities in Germany. Continue to the "Deutsches Eck" (German corner) where the Moselle River joins the Rhine River. From there, cross the river in a panoramic funicular that allows you to have a spectacular view. On the other side of the river is the Ehrenbreitstein fortress, the second largest fortress in Europe. Ludwig van Beethoven's mother was born in Koblenz. You can visit his home now converted into a museum dedicated to the life of Beethoven (open on Sundays and holidays). The trip continues to Bonn.

Day 03: Day 3 Bonn

He is considered the irascible titan of the era of classicism: Ludwig van Beethoven (1770- 1827). Bonn's most illustrious son not only wrote the Fifth Symphony, but also composed the melody "To joy", the anthem of Europe since 1972. In his hometown Bonn, Beethoven is present in every corner. Learn today during a guided tour the most important places related to his life, including the Beethoven monument, in the Münsterplatz square and the sculpture called "Beethon", as well as the Beethoven House, the composer's birthplace. In honor of the 250 years of his birth, the Beethoven House was completely remodeled and now houses a permanent collection with more than 200 original objects by the great composer. It also offers endless concerts throughout the year. Depending on your travel date, it is recommended today to attend a special concert by the Beethoven orchestra or the Beethoven Festival (see information below).

Day 04: Day 4 Bonn - Cologne

Visit of the Bundeskunsthalle Bonn (House of Art) that presents a special exhibition on the importance of Beethoven and its international impact (17.12.2019 - 26.04.2020). In the afternoon departure to Cologne.

Day 05: Day 5 Cologne - Frankfurt

Today there is a city tour through this great metropolis of the Rhine. The tips of the Gothic cathedral (UNESCO heritage) dominate this ancient German city that enjoys countless artistic treasures, famous museums and a very rich cultural life. In the afternoon return to Frankfurt.
