Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Day 1: Arrive – Ubud

Arrival at Denpasar Airport and private transfer by our English-speaking guide. Accommodation in Ubud.

Day 02: Day 2: Ubud

Breakfast at the Hotel. Morning departure to visit the famous Tegalalang Rice Terraces located north of Ubud. We will visit the Tampak Siring Temple, known as the Temple of the Holy Spring and we will end the day at the Gunung Kawi Temple where the Tomb of King Udayana is located. Overnight in Ubud.

Day 03: Day 3: Ubud – Munduk

Check out of the hotel and head towards Taman Ayun, a royal family temple located in Mengwi. Built in 1634, it is a site recognized by UNESCO in 2012. Then visit the Tanah Lot Temple, a beautiful sanctuary that is located on an islet about 100 meters from the coast. We continue the tour and visit the beautiful landscapes of Jatiluwih rice fields where the traditional Balinese irrigation system known as Subak has been preserved. Then continue to the Ulun Danu Temple located on the shore of Lake Bratan, a huge lake formed by a crater. Its water, although cloudy and deep, is sacred to the Balinese. Transfer to the hotel.

Accommodation in Munduk.

Day 04: Day 4: Munduk - Lovina

Free morning to enjoy the activities offered by the hotel. Check out of the hotel and continue the trip to Lovina. Visit Brahmavihara Arama - the Buddhist Monastery, with colorful decoration, a bright orange roof and Buddha statues, but it has very Balinese decorative carvings. Also visit a sacred spring originated from volcanic activities. Accommodation in Lovina

Day 05: Day 5: Lovina – Candidasa

Early in the morning, departure on a traditional boat to see the dolphins. Return to the hotel for breakfast. Then departure to the eastern region of Bali. Enroute visit Beji Temple, a Subak Temple dedicated to the spirit that cares for irrigation and rice fields, famous for its Barong architecture and virtuous relief carvings. We will continue towards Kintamani, located at about 1,700 meters above sea level, from where you can enjoy a beautiful view of the Volcano and Lake Batur. Before arriving at the hotel, we visit Besakih Temple known as The Mother Temple and one of the most sacred for the Balinese. Accommodation in Candidasa.

Day 06: Day 6: Candidasa

Today we dedicate the day to get to know East Bali up close. We visited Taman Ujung, the complex consists of several large pools and historic structures that are set against a backdrop of Mount Agung and the eastern shoreline. We continue to the water palace of Tirta Gangga, where the last King of the Karang Asem region lived. In the afternoon visit Tenganan, a typical Balinese town and the ancient capital of Bali, where you will visit the Palace of Justice, built by the Dutch in 1904 and later razed to the ground. Accommodation in Candidasa.

Day 07: Day 7: Candidasa – Gili Trawangan

At the indicated time, you will be picked up by the boat representative and transferred (jointly) to the nearby pier in Padangbai where you will board the fast boat for Gili Trawangan. Arrival and transfer by local transport “cidomo” to the hotel. Accommodation in Gili Trawangan.

Day 08: Day 8: Gili Trawangan
