Day 02: Day 2 Thursday Tel Aviv - Jaffa

Start the day with a visit to the Palmach museum dedicated to the Hagana, the underground military organization. Next, visit Itzhak Rabin center; learn the legacy of the late Prime Minister and explore the making, the history and the development of the state. Continue to Jaffa, an ancient port city, named for Japheth, one of the sons of Noah who built it after the flood; Visit the old city and stroll around the restored city, the Artists' quarter, galleries, and the renovated harbor. Visit Tel-Aviv Museum, Israel's largest art museum that displays a wide collection of permanent and temporary exhibits of both Israeli and international artists. Witness the old meet the new as you visit Saron, originally a 140-year-old German Templar colony, occupied later by the British forces and handed back to the Israelis in 1947; it has now been restored, preserving the original architecture, and converted to a lively pedestrian open air commercial center. Overnight in Tel-Aviv.

Day 03: Day 3 Friday Tel Aviv

Start the day with a visit to Ayalon Institute, once a secret underground ammunition factory. Drive through the main streets of Tel-Aviv, passing by Rabin's Square, place of assassination of Prime Minister Itzhak Rabin. Stop at Tel-Aviv port and enjoy the promenade along the seafront with the unique shops, cafés and youthful ambiance. Continue to Neve Tzedek, the first neighborhood of Tel-Aviv built in 1887 outside the old port city of Jaffa; explore the narrow alleys and the unique low buildings; Proceed to the Carmel market and enjoy the vibrant noises, smells and colors. End the day at Nahalat Benyamin and enjoy the live street music, arts, crafts and handmade jewelry. Overnight in Tel-Aviv.
