Day 02: Day 2: Tbilisi City Tour

Breakfast at the hotel. Today we are waited by acquaintance to the capital. A slow walk will allow you to enjoy local architecture and sights, listen to a rich story about centuries-old history and modern life of the city! We start our walking tour from Sameba Cathedral and Metekhi temple - the last refuge of one of the first martyrs of Christianity - Shushanik. Next we "flight" on the cable car to the ancient fortress "Narikala» (Vc.). We continue with "Abanotubani" - district in the old part of the city, famous for its baths complex (XVII-XIX cc.) and typical overhanging wooden carved balconies. It's time to feel cool at the waterfall and touch the history of this place. A bit farther you can see several interesting monuments and "Karvasla"(caravanserai) turned into a city museum. Later you will be amazed by Sioni Cathedral with its stored Christian relics. From historical antiquities we got to the modern made of glass "Bridge of Peace" - the second in the world by the design complexity. Next stop: the residence of the Patriarch, one of the monuments of Georgian writing and coinage, and the oldest temple of the city - Anchishati. Then there is the bizarre puppet theater of artist, director, writer, screenwriter and sculptor Rezo Gabriadze - the most famous in the post-soviet space as a puppeteer. You will see historical monuments, including the remains of an ancient fortress and walls, to the way to Freedom Square. Then there is a Pushkin Square and the building of the seminary, where Stalin has studied, which is now the Museum of Art. On the square - the symbolic Georgia gilded monument of St. George, a former city hall, hotel "Courtyard Marriot". From it also starts the main avenue of the city - Rustaveli Avenue. This - luxury hotels, beautiful theaters and museums, the legendary church Kashveti, monumental building of the former parliament, the residence of the general governor of the Russian Empire in the Caucasus times Tiflis province, National Museum of Georgia, Opera and Ballet theater, theater of Shota Rustaveli, Academy of Sciences, and, of course, the monument to the great Georgian poet Shota Rustaveli. Overnight in Tbilisi

Day 03: Day 3: Uplistsikhe - Borjomi

Breakfast at the hotel. Drive to Uplistsikhe (literally, "the lord's fortress") is an ancient rock-hewn in eastern Georgia. It contains various structures dating from the Early Iron Ages to the Late Middle Ages, and is notable for the unique combination of various styles of rock-cut cultures from Anatolia and Iran as well as the co-existence of pagan and Christian architecture. Then our way leads to Samtskhe - Javakheti - the region in southern Georgia, known with Borjomi Spa Resort with mineral water well known throughout the world.

Taste the famous Borjomi spring water, straight from the source. Walk through the park of Borjomi. Its uniqueness is in the diversity of geographical and ecological zones, landscapes, historical monuments and rich flora and fauna. Overnight in Borjomi

Day 04: Day 4: Mtskheta- Shopping Center Tbilisi Mall

Breakfast at the hotel. Trip to the ancient capital of Georgia - Mtskheta. The first object in Mtskheta, included in the UNESCO World Heritage List is Jvari Monastery. Its history begins from 545 years. The monastery stands on a cliff, where from a bird's-eye view, opens an indescribable beauty panorama of the merging two majestic rivers - Aragvi and Mtkvari. In turn, another object included in the UNESCO World Heritage List is Svetitskhoveli Cathedral that has some of the greatest relics of the Christian world. In its present form, there is a cathedral, though it is here from 1010 year. Thanks to St. Nino in 337 years, finds its birth the history of the first Christian church, and the whole Christianity of Georgia. In the temple, also buried Georgian kings, including the legendary founder of Tbilisi – Vakhtang Gorgasali, King Irakli II and other members of the royal Bagrationi dynasty. Transfer to Tbilisi Mall.
