Day 03: Day 03: LA PAZ

Breakfast in hotel. The morning is at leisure. In the afternoon, La Paz's city tour is scheduled, with cableway and Moon Valley (private service, English speaking guide). Overnight.

Day 04: Day 04: LA PAZ / UYUNI / COLCHANI

After breakfast in your hotel, you have a transfer to the airport to take the flight to Uyuni. Upon arrival, a transfer takes you to the city to start the visit to Salar de Uyuni (private service by 4x4, English speaking guide). First, you visit the train cemetery to see the old steam locomotives that were used to transport minerals. We continue the journey to the village of Colchani, where the processing of salt can be observed (drying, grinding and packaging of salt). You also have the opportunity to purchase handicrafts made of salt. Then, we are able to see the Salt mounds (first stage in processing the salt, the drying), the Eyes of water (groundwater that flow to the surface), the Salt Museum built from salt. Later we visit the Incahuasi Island. This is a rocky island in the middle of the salt flat, where we can observe giant cactuses. Some of these cactuses are more than 100 years old. From the top you can see the salt flats in its entirety. You have lunch in the centre of the salt flats (only during dry season). We continue the excursion to the town of Coquesa, where we will visit its famous mummies (dated from the 700b.c. and which preserve almost intact part of the skin, hair and fingernails). We have a small walk around the viewpoint of the Tunupa volcano, where we will observe the flamingos in the wetlands. A transfer takes you to Colchani. Overnight.
